Chester Savage Taken to State Re- form School This Morning

Chester Savage, the youth who shot and killed his uncle, W. L. Savage, at Fernleaf two years ago, and who was sentenced to serve six years in the Penitentiary, which sentence was commuted to a term in the State Reform School by Judge Harbeson, was taken to that institution at Lexington this morning by Sheriff Mackey on the 5:20 L. and N. train.

The boy was not handcuffed and showed no concern when he boarded the train.

Developments in his case are awaited with interest.

LIFE INSURANCE

Mrs. Charlotte Wormald Seeks to Collect on Husband's Policy

Mrs. Charlotte Wormald filed suit Wednesday in the Campbell Circuit Court against the Provident Savings Life Assurance Company of New York to recover $10,000 alleged to be due on the life of the plaintiff's husband.

In her petition Mrs. Wormald says her husband was insured by the defendant Company September 24th, 1890, in the above amount. She further says that the Company agreed to renew and extend the insurance on payment of renewal premiums, less dividend awards before September 26th, and that her husband paid up to and including September 26th, 1900, and that he died March 27th, 1901.

Mrs. Wormald also alleges that the dividends due on the policy, if added to the retentions, according to the contract as set forth in the policy, would have carried the policy past the time of death, but that the Company refused to pay the face of the policy or any part.

FOR SCHOOL.

The doors are swinging open—is the little woman ready to enter? School clothes are as necessary as school books—clothes that are comfortable, suitable, serviceable. Have you investigated the remarkable bargains we're giving in plaid dress goods? Reductions are decisive, and with the exception of three pieces that are slightly wrinkled, as described below, the goods are reduced in spite of their merit, and not because of any imperfection:

$1 Yard for $1 1/2 Grade

Black and white check Serge of beautiful quality. Fresh, clean goods, not the rummage of last season.

50c Yard for $1 Grade

Plaid Serge 44 inches wide in rich dark colors and heavy firm weave to withstand hard usage. Generous assortment.

50c Yard for 90c Grade

Gray, and tan wool Crepe of firm finish and splendid wearing quality. Solid color, but as bargains deserving place with the plaids.

39c Yard for 50c Grade

Bright Tartans, wrinkled from use in store drapery—wrinkled but not soiled—an ill quickly cured.

25c Yard for 40c Grade

Not plaid, but too good a bargain to miss mention. 27-inch all-wool, green ground with flecks of white.

10c Yard for 25c Grade.

Henly Plaid—not wool, of course, but as pretty as goods many times the price.

Checks and Plaids

A big assortment, chiefly light colors, in splendid wool fabrics that are reduced as follows: The 50c grade 29c. The 60c grade 39c. The $1.25 grade 75c.

FOR VICE-PRESIDENT,

FOR CONGRESS,
Hon. JOSEPH B. BENNETT.

The theory that Mr. BRYAN can be politically extinguished by factional disloyalty within the Democracy is simply childish. Mr. BRYAN stands for an emotion of resentment and envy of the prosperity of others. Until the American people come really to understand the essentially socialistic character of Bryanism and puff it away as they have similar leveling-down movements of the past, Mr. BRYAN will be a potent figure in politics.—Chicago Inter-Ocean.

It makes the Bluegrass sad to realize what Lexington lost when she was whittled out of the State Fair by Louisville. Lexington lost the State Capitol location, too, through Louisville's manipulations. We recall these sad truths, not through spite or malice, but just because we like to dig up old troubles occasionally and cry over them. With a half million dollar State Fair at Lexington, the Bluegrass section would have come into her own and all Kentucky would have felt the radiating effects of Lexington's expansion. Boo-hoo and d—!

In a public speech at Princeton Judge WELLS of Murray declared that "the dawn of reason and right is coming in Kentucky." Welcome will be the day. Hurry it along, Judge.

"The labor leaders of the country are in line for BRYAN and KERN," asserts The Memphis News-Scimitar. Of course, it's none of our business, but from here it doesn't look like a very straight line.—Washington Post.

MR. TAFT is no Orator Puff. He has no two tones to his voice. We take his word as already given, that he stands for Roosevelt and Roosevelt's policies. He does not say one thing in Kansas and another in New York. Where do ROOSEVELT's denouncers stand, and what is their position now? Speak up, gentlemen! You were not silent last October or November. Did you tell the truth then, or were your allegations false and ill founded? Let the country have a square deal!—Cincinnati Enquirer.

"MAKE no compromise with dishonor" was the electric-borne message from over the seas to the "Star-Eyed Goddess" twelve years ago.

Marse Henry
a Bad Old
Compromiser Now.

Then the "locks" of the gallant Marse HENRY "were like the raven's;" then the honor and integrity of the country were in the balance; then for the first time we had learned that wheat and silver "went up and down the hill th' gither."

Now we are told that this would-be traducer of the honor of the old "Goddess" is an "amiable doctrinaire with Jeffersonian tendencies," whose lack of wisdom cannot hurt the country so long as there is a Republican Congress to prevent it.

If this be praise, make the most of it.—Lexington Leader.

THE REAL RESPONSIBILITY.

The Damages Should Be Charged to the Lighting Plant.

The supreme court of Texas has recently rendered a decision in line with decisions in several other states. In City of Greenville versus Pitts it was held that where the wires connecting with a city lighting plant ran along a partition wall above the roof of a building it was the city's duty to the owners of the buildings and their servants and to others having a legal right to use the roofs to maintain such wires in a safe condition. Unfortunately when damages are awarded under such decisions they are made a charge against the general funds of the city and never appear in the accounts of the lighting department, where they belong. If they were debited against the lighting plant it would help people to understand that a city cannot evade any of the costs of private operation, although it may seem to do so through bad bookkeeping, and incidentally that proper bookkeeping would show municipal cost to average higher than private cost.

Clearly Stated.

The advocates of municipal ownership usually forget to include as an item of expense when making a showing in regard to the profits of such institutions the taxes the city loses because of its ownership of the plant. When a city does not own a public utilities plant, that property pays taxes to the city. As soon as a city buys such a plant this source of income is cut off. The loss of taxes is therefore very properly chargeable to the plant as a city expense. How often is this done?—Davenport (Ia.) Times.

Socialism in Practice.

The new municipal council of Brest, France, which has come into office after eight years of Socialist rule, has been forced to sell some of the city property because of the large debt bequeathed it.—St. Louis Times.

London Continues to Lose.

Fifteen of the London boroughs have municipal electric plants, the investment in which is nearly $30,000,000. In 1907 the net profit from these plants, without providing for depreciation, was about $15,000. As the depreciation would amount to $200,000, the net loss for the year was approximately $185,000.

Making or Keeping Promises.

The difference between Mr. Taft's promise of tariff revision and Mr. Bryan's pledges in the same direction is that Mr. Taft if elected will be in position to redeem his pledge, while Mr. Bryan if elected would be powerless to accomplish anything with a Republican senate arrayed against his free trade plans.—Omaha Bee.

MAYSVILLE BOY KILLED

W. R. Alexander Falls From Wagon at Central City, Ky., and Breaks His Neck

William Rice Alexander, oldest son of the late Sheriff John W. Alexander and Mrs. Mary Alexander of Limestone street, was killed at Central City, Ky., yesterday by falling from a wagon and breaking his neck. He was an employee of Robinson's Circus and either fell or was pushed from his wagon and met his death.

His mother received a dispatch yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock, informing her of the sad news.

Mr. Alexander was born in Maysville December 4th, 1874, and was about 34 years of age. He was familiarly known as "Buttons" and had been with the Robinson Shows for some time.

His remains will arrive here tonight and the funeral will take place tomorrow afternoon at 3 o'clock from the residence of his mother in Limestone street, with services by Rev. Ross Arnold of the First Baptist Church.

Interment in the family lot in Maysville Cemetery.

Mr. D. Kennedy arrived home last evening from Batavia, O.

Mr. Clint M. Browning of this city was in a passenger wreck on the L. and N. yesterday near Nashville and narrowly escaped death or serious injury. He was injured about the face and head slightly.

Bob Stewart and Charley Shrod, two hoboes, were arrested yesterday at the Maysville Brick Yards trying to dispose of a $50 gold watch for $7. They were arrested by Officer Senter and are being held pending an investigation.

GRAHAM—RADEBAUGH.

Mr. Elmer B. Graham, son of Mrs. Sallie Graham and well known in this city, and Miss Anna Radebaugh were married a few days since at the home of the bride at Lancaster, Ohio.

Mr. Graham is located at Moberly, Mo., where he is foreman of the buttoning room of the Brown Shoe Factory.

Mr. and Mrs. Graham are spending their honeymoon with relatives in Maysville, taking up their residence later at Moberly.

DR. L. M. WILSON.

Dr. L. M. Wilson of Minerva died this morning at 1:30 o'clock of typhoid fever, after an illness of nearly five weeks.

Deceased was a young man of only 29 years, who went to that community about one year ago. By his skill and conscientiousness he soon succeeded in building up for himself a wide practice as a physician and was esteemed and honored by all who knew him. The sympathy of the whole community goes out to his sorrowing wife and little daughter, whom he loved so well and had to leave behind.

The funeral services will be held Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock in the Christian Church at Garrettsville, Ky., by Rev. Ed Allen, Pastor of the M. E. Church, South. Interment will be in K. of P. Cemetery.

By agreement of counsel for both parties, Frazee Biggers was granted a divorce from his wife, who is restored to her maiden name, Theodosia G. Curran.

A GREAT LINE OF FREE ATTRACTIONS.

In line with its policy to put on only the greatest attractions that can be secured, the Kentucky State Fair management has closed a contract with Frank P. Spellman of Cleveland, O., for what is believed to be the best line of free attractions ever seen at a Southern Fair. These attractions will be seen in front of the grandstand each day, including Spellman's Performing Bears and ten other free attractions, such as trapeze acts, mid-air performances, etc.

A Japanese troupe of gymnasts and equilibrists, excellent in their line anything ever seen before in Louisville, has been engaged especially for the State Fair, and will be seen exclusively in Kentucky at that time. In addition to the more thrilling of the well-known acts of balancing and gymnastic work, they have devised several features which will be for the first time introduced here.

The thriller of free attractions, however, will be the troupe of trapeze performers, including several men, women and a tiny tot which is hurled by its heels twenty-five feet through the air and is safely caught by one of its elders. Accidents do not occur in this act, but despite their perfection a net is spread for a possible emergency, so that even if an accident should occur, no fatality would result.

The shows already engaged for the "Stretch" are Foreria's Trained Wild Animal Congress, the Dicky Wild West Show and Cow Boy Indians; the Dark Town Fire Brigade; Heaven and Hell Mechanical Device; Johnstown Flood; Palace of Illusions; Electric Palace, and many others which will be added later. This is enough to insure every visitor that there will be something doing every minute.

The Perfect Carriage Horse at the State Fair.

In order to develop a perfect carriage horse, the United States Government appointed a Commission to investigate the desired points that should be possessed. In order to stimulate the breeding of this class of animals, the Kentucky State Fair offers a $75 trophy and a $50 cup for the best mare and stallion, according to the government classification. The points desired by the carriage horse are given in detail in the State Fair catalogue.

ROSEBERRY'S RASCALITY

Dictated Courier-Journal's Report That Conference Had Exonerated Him—Shrewd as Well as Unprincipled

A Statement From Rev. B. F. Chatham Which in No Way Inculcates The Public Ledger

The following communication from the Rev. B. F. Chatham, Pastor of the First M. E. Church, South, at Maysville, is published with pleasure and is self-explanatory concerning the escapades of "the Rev." H. E. Roseberry, whose record and recent doings have filled the columns of THE PUBLIC LEDGER on recent occasions. We fail to see how any fair-minded person can censure THE LEDGER on any count in this unhappy and disgraceful business. Roseberry, the arch-hypocrite, is to blame. He duped his friends, neighbors, the Preachers and The Courier-Journal, and that's all there is to it.

Roseberry remains blacker than THE LEDGER painted him, and we have nothing to take back.

Following is Brother Chatham's statement: There appeared in THE PUBLIC LEDGER of September 16th an article giving another chapter in the Roseberry case.

I wish to call attention to errors in this article, and state some facts concerning this case. I quote from the article:

"Later, THE PUBLIC LEDGER published a communication from a Committee of M. E. Pastors, which claimed to have investigated fully the charges against Roseberry, said Committee acquitting him of all blame."

A Committee, composed of Rev. W. E. Arnold, P. E. of Maysville District; Rev. E. E. Holmes, P. C. of Second M. E. Church, South, of Maysville; Rev. Edward Allen, P. C. of M. E. Church, South, of Germantown, and the writer, investigated rumors concerning Roseberry. We went to Sardis and made a thorough investigation, many witnesses testifying. Each witness was asked the following questions, with the following answers:

Question—"Have you ever seen H. E. Roseberry do anything at any time unbecoming a Christian gentleman or a Minister of the Gospel?"

Answer—"I have not."

Question—"Have you ever heard H. E. Roseberry speak a word at any time that was unbecoming a Christian gentleman and a Minister of the Gospel?"

Answer—"I have not."

Question—"Have you ever heard anyone say that they had heard H. E. Roseberry say anything unbecoming a Christian gentleman and a Minister of the Gospel?"

Answer—"I have not."

Question—"Have you ever heard any one say that they have ever seen H. E. Roseberry do anything unbecoming a Christian gentleman or a Minister of the Gospel?"

Answer—"I have not."

The above questions and answers are at least in substance the exact questions and answers given in this investigation.

The article further states:

"Last Saturday's LEDGER also published the proceedings of Kentucky Conference in session at Middlesboro, which gave Roseberry a nice pair of wings and a gold-embossed certificate of good character."

Roseberry came to Middlesboro, and before his name was called in Conference another member of the Conference and I went to him and I said:

"Roseberry, I hope you will withdraw from the Conference and surrender your credentials and not compel the Conference to go through an ugly trial."

He did not hesitate a moment, but said "I will do it."

He did surrender his credentials, and had the Conference tried him and found him guilty we could only have expelled him. It simply saved a trial, and when he agreed to surrender his credentials he placed himself in the same relation to Conference as he would have been had he been tried and found guilty. This request was made on the street, and the matter was never brought before the Conference, except to announce that Roseberry had surrendered his credentials. Neither the Conference or any member of it are responsible for the false statement published in last Saturday's LEDGER. THE LEDGER did not report the proceedings of the Kentucky Conference, but a falsehood that was possibly taken from The Courier-Journal of September 11th. No doubt, Roseberry is the author of the article referred to in The Courier Journal.

Now, the Committee that investigated the rumors concerning Roseberry at Sardis did the only thing possible to be done, and if the blame rests upon anybody, it rests upon the people, who, if they knew anything against the character of Roseberry, lacked the backbone to tell it to the proper Committee at the proper time.
